Introduction

ELECTION 2016: CHANGES IN CONGRESS

The wild and erratic 2016 election mercifully came to a close early this morning with the stunning election of Donald J. Trump as the 45th President of the United States of America. Trump's message of change and anti-establishment appealed to vast swaths of voters, especially the white working-class and those in rural areas.

Republicans retained control of both Houses of Congress with only minimal losses.

In the Senate, the GOP only lost two seats. Senator Mark Kirk lost to Congresswoman Tammy Duckworth and Governor Maggie Hassan defeated Senator Kelly Ayotte. Republicans will have at least 51 Senators in the next Congress and will continue to set the agenda and chair the committees. In addition to Duckworth and Hassan, next year's Senate will have three new Democrats: Kamala Harris of California; Chris Van Hollen of Maryland; and Catherine Cortez Masto of Nevada. The one new Republican in the Senate will be Todd Young of Indiana. A runoff occurred in Louisiana on December 10, in which John Kennedy, a Republican, won.

In the House, Republican losses were held to about nine, far fewer than many expected. Incumbents fared very well in the House as it appears that only seven have lost thus far to challengers. Democrats picked up three seats in Florida, two in Nevada, and one each in Illinois, New Hampshire, New Jersey, and Virginia. Republicans picked up two seats in Florida and one in Nebraska. Lastly, two seats in Louisiana were won on December 10 by Republicans.

ABOUT THE 2016 ELECTION GUIDE

K&L Gates is providing this guide to help you better understand and keep track of the changes in Congress. It provides a starting point for assessing the coming changes in House and Senate Committee and Subcommittee memberships. The following are included within this guide:

- All new Members of Congress are listed alphabetically by state along with links to the campaign websites, which contain biographical information. Outgoing Members of Congress are listed, with the reasons for their departures.
- Complete delegations for each state are included with new Members of the House and Senate highlighted in yellow to indicate no change in party and their predecessors shown. Seats that switched parties are highlighted in red for Republican pick-ups and blue for Democratic pick-ups. Races that are too close to call are marked with an asterisk and highlighted gray.
- Roster lists for each full Committee and Subcommittee from the departing 114th Congress are included, with non-returning members lined out and projected full Committee House Chairmen noted.

House Committees

Please Note: The information provided on the House committees in this guide contains information from the 114th Congress. Members who retired or were defeated in the primary or general election are struck through. Members who resigned are not included in the Committee rosters. At the full-Committee level, the Chairmen and Ranking Members listed reflect what is expected for the 115th Congress as well as what has been announced. For Subcommittees, however, the Chairman and Ranking Members listed simply carry forward information from the 114th Congress. We will continue to update the committee information as rosters are finalized.

Information in this Reference Guide is current as of 11:54 AM on April 13, 2017

Virtually every sector of the economy is affected by the government. Fates, futures, and bottom lines often shift substantially as a result of governmental decisions. Those who can shape decisions have a competitive edge. To achieve their goals, companies and other organizations need timely and relevant information, and the ability to identify and access the right government officials about issues and proposed legislation or regulations that affect them.

For over four decades, K&L Gates has helped clients solve their critical legal, policy, and political problems in the nation's capital—on Capitol Hill, at the agencies, and in the courts. Founded at a time when few law firms had lobbying practices, the policy group has grown from a single lobbyist to become the largest of any fully integrated global law firm.

A number of publications, including Chambers USA and Legal 500, have ranked the practice as one of the premier policy practices in the nation. In October 2015, K&L Gates was ranked among the top four law firms in The National Law Journal's Influence 50 survey.

A Public Policy and Law Team with a Global Reach

The Public Policy and Law group has more than 60 lawyers and policy professionals with over 500 years of combined experience in federal and state government. Our bipartisan team members include: a former U.S. Senator, two former House members, a former Secretary of the Army and member of the House of Representatives, and key former Democratic and Republican counsels and staff to the House and Senate leadership, Congressional committees, and numerous Members of Congress.

Members of our team have worked in the Executive Branch and regulatory agencies, including the United States Departments of Commerce, Defense, Energy, Justice, and Transportation; Central Intelligence Agency; Federal Communications Commission; Office of Management and Budget; Office of the U.S. Trade Representative; Securities and Exchange Commission; and others. Members of the Public Policy and Law group know what makes government tick in Washington, D.C., as well as in states in key regions of the country.

Members of our Public Policy group join forces with our Global Government Solutions® practice and together, provide a uniquely effective set of capabilities to help clients deal with governments around the world. Our Global Government Solutions® initiative brings together lawyers from various practice disciplines located in our fully integrated offices in the primary political, commercial, and financial centers of North America, Europe, the Middle East, Asia, Australia, and South America, including 12 world capitals.

Our geographic reach, coupled with the depth and breadth of our practice positions us to advance client interests efficiently and effectively and to develop and execute coordinated strategies in multiple locations.

In their 2013 guide, Chambers said, “The firm’s global government solutions initiative relies on smart interaction between offices worldwide. This service is ideally suited to support clients whose policy objectives extend beyond the USA.”

“An established and experienced government relations practice, with noted global reach and strength in depth.”

Navigating the Policy Life Cycle

For over 40 years, K&L Gates has been the forefront of policy lifecycle developments as a trusted advisor to clients. The Policy group's success on behalf of our clients is built on a philosophy that emphasizes a deeply substantive and teamwork-based approach to public policy. Our goal is to understand a policy issue from every direction—substantively and politically—and to use the collective knowledge and experience of our team to help clients achieve their objectives. The group is well positioned to consider a range of legislative, regulatory, and judicial options to benefit our clients, navigating them through all stages of the policy life cycle.

We offer innovative solutions, provide exceptional service, and deliver extraordinary results. That approach has worked for over four decades, which is why the Public Policy and Law group has thrived through nine Administrations and 23 Congresses.

Ethics Guidance

The Public Policy and Law group maintains an active government ethics counseling practice to help guide our clients through the maze of government requirements. The firm has written the book on government ethics—"A Guide To Political and Lobbying Activities," most recently updated in June 2016—which includes advice on political fundraising, lobbying disclosure rules, and Congressional and Executive Branch ethics.

K&L Gates' Guide
To Political and Lobbying Activities

More than 20 years ago, K&L Gates published the first edition of "A Guide to Political and Lobbying Activities," designed to simplify political law compliance for the busy Washington professional.

Public Service

The Public Policy and Law group also has a long and cherished tradition of providing pro bono representation. Among our most satisfying representations is our work with Water Advocates and its successor organization, WASH Advocates, to increase U.S. federal support for WASH (Water, Sanitation, and Hygiene) in the developing world. More than one billion people currently lack access to clean drinking water, and each day water-related illnesses kill 2,200 of the world's children. We helped pass and fund the Senator Paul Simon Water for the Poor Act of 2005, which commits the United States to promoting safe, affordable, and sustainable access to WASH in the developing world. A broad, bipartisan team of professionals from the Public Policy and Law group worked with our client to help draft and pass this legislation. We followed that with the Senator Paul Simon Water for the World Act of 2014, which expanded the federal government's capacity to promote WASH. In addition, the firm has worked to increase annual federal water aid funding to $400 million, which has brought first-time, sustained access to WASH to millions of people around the world.

CLIENT TESTIMONIALS

Chambers USA

- “ They are excellent; absolutely one of the most valuable resources that we have. They have a nuanced understanding of all the players and processes, and get very good results.” - 2016
- “ K&L Gates’ knowledge of the issues is first rate, their ability to track development and recognize trends is also very good; the group has a very good understanding of who the different players are on different issues.” - 2015
- “ They have a broad base of people who are very well connected with both political parties, so access has been incredible in terms of meeting directly with members of Congress.” - 2014
- “ They work as a team and will draw on another partner as needed according to what the issue requires, yet still keep costs level.” - 2013
- “ K&L Gates has immersed itself in our business—the team is integral to our business strategy.” - 2012
- “ They have a very deep relationship with Congress and the regulatory agencies--their magic is that they understand why things are as they are, and if they’re not as they should be, they understand how to tweak and change them.” - 2011

- “ They work very hard to understand our entire operation and the issues that are important to us. In fact, I think it’s fair to say that some of the attorneys there understand our operation and daily issues better than some of our own people in our leadership positions.” - 2011

The Legal 500

- “ At K&L Gates, clients can ‘rely on a rapid, professional response across the public policy spectrum at any time, day or night’.” - 2016
