Introduction

ELECTION 2014: CHANGES IN CONGRESS

Riding a wave of voter discontent, Republicans in the mid-term election took control of the U.S. Senate and increased their majority in the House of Representatives.

In the United States Senate, the Republicans will have 54 Senators at the start of the 114th Congress, a net pick-up of nine. The Republicans successfully defended all of their Senate seats, won three open seats in Montana, South Dakota, and West Virginia, and beat Democratic Senators in Alaska, Arkansas, Colorado, Iowa, Louisiana, and North Carolina. The new Senators include 12 Republicans, Dan Sullivan (AK), Tom Cotton (AR), Cory Gardner (CO), David Perdue (GA), Joni Ernst (IA), Bill Cassidy (LA), Steve Daines (MT), Ben Sasse (NE), Thom Tillis (NC), James Lankford (OK), Mike Rounds (SD), and Shelley Moore Capito (WV), and one Democrat, Gary Peters (MI).

In the House of Representatives, there will be at least 247 Republicans in the new Congress, a net pick-up of 13. There will be at least 60 new House members, 44 Republicans and 17 Democrats, with perhaps more to be added as races are called. The new House members include six from California; five from Michigan; four from Georgia and New York; three from New Jersey, North Carolina, Texas, and Virginia; two from Arkansas, Arizona, Florida, Illinois, Iowa, Louisiana, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia; one each from Alabama, Colorado, Hawaii, Maine, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Nevada, Oklahoma, Washington, Utah, and Wisconsin.

ABOUT THE 2014 ELECTION GUIDE

K&L Gates is providing this guide to help you better understand and keep track of the changes in Congress. It provides a starting point for assessing the coming changes in House and Senate Committee and Subcommittee memberships. The following are included within this guide:

- All new Members of Congress are listed alphabetically by state along with links to the campaign websites, which contain biographical information. Outgoing Members of Congress are listed, with the reasons for their departures.
- Complete delegations for each state are included with new Members of the House and Senate highlighted in yellow to indicate no change in party and their predecessors shown. Seats that switched parties are highlighted in red for Republican pick-ups, blue for Democratic pick-ups, and green for independent pick-ups. Races that are too close to call are marked with an asterisk and highlighted gray.
- Roster lists for each full Committee and Subcommittee from the departing 113th Congress are included, with non-returning members lined out and projected full Committee House Chairmen noted.

Senate Committees

Please Note: The information provided on the Senate committees in this guide contains information from the 113th Congress. Retired or defeated members are struck through. At the full-Committee level, the Chairmen and Ranking Members listed reflect what is expected for the 114th Congress as well as what has been announced. For Subcommittees, however, the Chairman and Ranking Members listed simply carry forward information from the 113th Congress, but switched to show the Republican take over of the Senate. We will continue to update the committee information as rosters are finalized.

Information in this Reference Guide is current as of 5:20 PM EST on January 26, 2015

House Committees

Please Note: The information provided on the House committees in this guide contains information from the 113th Congress. Members who retired or were defeated in the primary or general election are struck through. Members who resigned are not included in the Committee rosters. At the full-Committee level, the Chairmen and Ranking Members listed reflect what is expected for the 114th Congress as well as what has been announced. For Subcommittees, however, the Chairman and Ranking Members listed simply carry forward information from the 113th Congress. We will continue to update the committee information as rosters are finalized.

Information in this Reference Guide is current as of 5:20 PM EST on January 26, 2015

Virtually every sector of the economy is affected by the government. Fates, futures, and bottom lines often shift substantially as a result of governmental decisions. Those who can shape decisions have a competitive edge. To achieve their goals, companies and other organizations need timely and relevant information, and the ability to identify and access the right government officials about issues and proposed legislation or regulations that affect them.

For four decades, K&L Gates has helped clients solve their critical legal, policy, and political problems in the nation's capital—on Capitol Hill, at the agencies, and in the courts. Founded at a time when few law firms had lobbying practices, the policy group has grown from a single lobbyist to become the largest of any fully integrated global law firm.

A number of publications, including Chambers USA, a leading guide to the legal profession, have ranked the practice as one of the premier policy practices in the nation. In their 2014 edition, Chambers USA has acknowledged the firm “consistently ranks among the nation’s most influential law firms in lobbying and government policy work.” In July 2014, K&L Gates was ranked among the top five law firms in the National Law Journal’s Influence 50 survey.

“K&L Gates consistently ranks among the nation’s most influential law firms in lobbying and government policy work.”

A Public Policy and Law Team with a Global Reach

The Public Policy and Law group has nearly 50 lawyers and policy professionals with over 500 years of combined experience in federal and state government. Our bipartisan team members include: a former Senator, two former Congressmen, a former Governor and Attorney General of the United States, and key former Democratic and Republican counsels and staff to the House and Senate leadership, Congressional committees, and numerous Members of Congress.

Members of our team have worked in the Executive Branch and regulatory agencies, including the United States Departments of Commerce, Defense, Energy, Justice, and Transportation; Central Intelligence Agency;

Federal Communications Commission; Office of Management and Budget; Office of the U.S. Trade Representative; Securities and Exchange Commission; and others. Members of the Public Policy and Law group know what makes government tick in Washington, D.C., as well as in states in key regions of the country.

Members of our Public Policy group join forces with our Global Government Solutions® practice and together, provide a uniquely effective set of capabilities to help clients deal with governments around the world. Our Global Government Solutions® initiative brings together lawyers from various practice disciplines located in our fully integrated offices in the primary political, commercial, and financial centers of North America, Europe, the Middle East, Asia, Australia, and South America, including 13 world capitals or seats of government.

Our geographic reach, coupled with the depth and breadth of our practice positions us to advance client interests efficiently and effectively and to develop and execute coordinated strategies in multiple locations.

In their 2013 guide, Chambers said, “The firm’s global government solutions initiative relies on smart interaction between 48 offices worldwide. This service is ideally suited to support clients whose policy objectives extend beyond the USA.”

Navigating the Policy Life Cycle

For 40 years, K&L Gates has been the forefront of policy lifecycle developments as a trusted advisor to clients. The Policy group's success on behalf of our clients is built on a philosophy that emphasizes a deeply substantive and teamwork-based approach to public policy. Our goal is to understand a policy issue from every direction—substantively and politically—and to use the collective knowledge and experience of our team to help clients achieve their objectives. The group is well positioned to consider a range of legislative, regulatory, and judicial options to benefit our clients, navigating them through all stages of the policy life cycle.

We offer innovative solutions, provide exceptional service, and deliver extraordinary results. That approach has worked for four decades, which is why the Public Policy and Law group has thrived through eight Administrations and 21 Congresses.

Ethics Guidance

The Public Policy and Law group maintains an active government ethics counseling practice to help guide our clients through the maze of government requirements. The firm has written the book on government ethics—"A Guide To Political and Lobbying Activities"—which includes advice on political fundraising, lobbying disclosure rules, and Congressional and Executive Branch ethics.

Areas of Practice

The Public Policy and Law group maintains specific practices in a range of substantive areas:

- Aviation/Airport Policy
- Congressional Investigations
- Defense and Homeland Security
- Emerging Tech
- Environmental Policy
- Energy
- Federal Funding
- Financial Services
- Fisheries
- Government Contracts and Procurement
- Government Ethics and Election Law
- Health Care Policy

Public Service

The Public Policy and Law group also has a long and cherished tradition of providing pro bono representation. Among our most satisfying representations is our work with Water Advocates to pass and fund the Senator Paul Simon Water for the Poor Act of 2005. More than one billion people currently lack access to clean drinking water, and each day water-related illnesses kill 3,900 of the world's children. The Water for the Poor Act commits the United States to promoting safe, affordable, and sustainable drinking water and sanitation in the developing world. A broad, bipartisan team of professionals from the Public Policy and Law group worked with Water Advocates to help draft and pass this legislation. In addition, the firm has worked to increase annual federal water aid funding to $300 million.

“...lobbying giant.”
