

Al is a Director of Tern Plc an AIM listed investment company where he serves as an investor and business advisor to private companies including Device Authority. He is also a General Partner of Sixth Bridge L. P., an investment and strategic advisory firm and currently serves as an advisor and on the boards of several leading Enterprise Software and Security companies in Europe and the USA, including Agnitio, iJento and Nok Nok Labs. He also serves as an advisor to Centaur Partners, a leading, boutique technology investment banking firm.

Al Sisto, Executive Chairman

Al was formally Chairman and CEO of Hifn (NASDAQ: HIFN). He repositioned the company through acquisitions and repurposing technology leading to its merger with EXAR. Prior to Hifn, he had a seven-year tenure as Chairman, President and CEO of Phoenix Technologies (NASDAQ: PTEC), a provider of platform-enabling software. As COO of RSA Data Security he focused on strategy, operations and strategic investments to expand the security ecosystem.