INTRODUCTION

The national election produced a historic result in which Donald J. Trump was elected President a second time by winning key battleground states such as Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Michigan, Georgia, Arizona, Nevada, and North Carolina.

The election will significantly change the power balance of Congress, as Republicans have regained control of the US Senate with 53 Republican Senators following GOP flips in West Virginia, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Montana. This Senate GOP margin will allow Republicans to control the agenda in the Senate as all the committee chairs and Senate leadership positions will be filled by Republicans.

Republicans have also maintained their narrow majority in the US House, as vulnerable incumbent Republicans largely defended their seats and Republican losses in California and New York were matched with wins in Democratic-held districts in Colorado, Michigan, and Pennsylvania. With Democrats gaining one seat, the final House result is 220-215 in favor of Republicans, although this majority will temporarily shrink to 217 after members who are, or were, nominated for roles in the Trump administration depart Congress. This win results in Republicans achieving the long-sought-after governing trifecta, enabling Congress to use a special expedited legislative process called “reconciliation” to advance high-priority budget and tax measures.

To help you assess the 2024 election, we have prepared a comprehensive guide that summarizes the results and their impact on the 119th Congress, which will convene in January 2025. The Election Guide lists all new members elected to Congress, updates the congressional delegations for each state, and provides a starting point for analyzing the coming changes to the House and Senate committees.

ABOUT THE 2024 ELECTION GUIDE

K&L Gates prepared this comprehensive guide to summarize how the 2024 national election will impact the new 119th Congress. It includes updated state congressional delegations and anticipated changes in House and Senate Committees. The guide will be updated periodically as the election results are finalized.

- All new Members of Congress are listed alphabetically by state along with links to their campaign websites, which contain biographical information. Outgoing Members of Congress are listed, with the reasons for their departures.
- Complete delegations for each state are included with new Members of the House and Senate highlighted in yellow to indicate no change in party and their predecessors shown. Seats that switched parties are highlighted in red for Republican pick-ups and blue for Democratic pick-ups. Races that are too close to call are highlighted in gray.
- Roster lists for each full Committee from the departing 118th Congress are included, with non-returning members lined out. The likely Chairs and Ranking Members for each Senate and House committee for the new 119th Congress are also noted.
